

Italian Vocabulary Crosswords for English Speakers - CEFR A1

Make learning Italian more enjoyable—one crossword at a time. Build your beginner Italian vocabulary with this collection of 60 English–Italian crosswords, specially created for English speakers studying Italian at CEFR Level A1.

Rather than simply reading and memorising word lists, these puzzles encourage you to recall vocabulary, recognise meanings and make connections between English and Italian. Each completed crossword helps reinforce the essential words needed for everyday beginner-level communication.

The vocabulary has been carefully selected and compiled from publicly available CEFR-aligned materials, including resources produced by Italian universities and other recognised educational and language-learning organisations.

Inside you will find:

- 60 engaging English–Italian vocabulary crosswords
- Carefully selected vocabulary suitable for CEFR A1 learners
- Essential words covering everyday topics and situations
- Practice in recognising and recalling Italian vocabulary
- An enjoyable alternative to repetitive vocabulary exercises
- A useful supplement to language courses, apps and independent study

The puzzles provide a relaxed and rewarding way to practise Italian at your own pace. They are suitable for adult learners, students, travellers and anyone beginning their Italian-language journey. Whether you complete one crossword each day or work through several at a time, this book will help you develop greater confidence with the words that form the foundation of everyday Italian. Learn the vocabulary. Test your memory. Enjoy the challenge. This book is an independent learning aid. It is not an official CEFR publication and is not affiliated with or endorsed by any university, examination board or language-learning organisation.
